Biographical information: Elroy J. Belanger "Bee" was born in Fort Kent on March 2, 1932, the son of Louis Belanger and Emma Michaud. Bee joined the Army after his high school graduation and returned to Madawaska after his service to work for Fraser Paper where he remained until his retirement. The love of his life was Rita Pelletier whom he met at the Weber House in Van Buren, Maine. Bee loved photography and he always had a camera in his hands. He was a very proud 4th degree Knights of Columbus and Legionnaire. Elroy and Rita never had children but they had two special pets, Snowball the cat and Chico the dog. His wife Rita, who died in 2015, predeceased Elroy. He passed away on May 21, 2018.

Biographical Information: Rita Ouellette was born on September 24, 1927 to Claude Ouellette and Laura Vaillancourt. Rita worked as a secretary for the engineering department at Fraser Paper for forty-one years. She met Elroy Belanger at the Webber House in Van Buren and married on November 24, 1926. Rita loved to travel with friends going on cruises and bus tours. Rita passed away on November 1, 2015 at a Madawaska health care facility.

Scope and content: This collection consists of 453 black and white photographs and 1 colored photograph of people and places in the St. John Valley. The same people and the same buildings are showing up throughout this collection. The photographs in this collection are not identified but the staff was able to recognize a few of the buildings from Frenchville, Maine.
