Collection Description

Biographical Information

Fred T. Bouchard was born in Fort Kent, Maine on June 4, 1896, the son of Joseph Bouchard and Sarah Desjardin. He graduated from the Madawaska Training School in 1913 before attending the Shaw's Business College in Bangor, Maine. Mr. Bouchard was a World War I veteran. He began working for the U.S. Immigration Border Patrol in 1924. He was stationed in Marine City and then Detroit Michigan, before receiving a promotion to technical advisor at the U.S. Consulate in Cologne Germany in 1926. Fred married Iva G. Daigle of Fort Kent, Maine in Cologne on August 15, 1927. They had two daughters, Sarah Jane and Mary Ellen. In June 1930, Fred was assigned to Fort Kent and the next year he became the immigration officer in charge of the Madawaska office. He held this position until his retirement in 1961. Mr. Bouchard passed away on August 12, 1981.
