Collection Description

Historical and Biographical Information

Eli is a student at the Fort Kent Community High School (SAD-27) in Fort Kent, ME. Fort Kent is located in the Saint John Valley in northern Aroostook County. Every fall the FKCHS closes for a couple of weeks for Harvest Break so that students can help harvest potatoes on the local farms. To ensure that students meet their attendance requirements, the school system starts its academic year in mid-August.

Scope and Content

This CD contains an audio recording of Elijah “Eli” Rioux discussing the Harvest Break in detail including his involvement in harvesting from a local farm. This recording was made for a humanities class assignment in which students conduct oral interviews.
