Collection Description

Historical and Biographical Information

Julia Bayly has been a freelance writer/photographer since 2000. She currently works as a reporter/photographer for the Bangor Daily News with a regular bi-weekly column on homestead features. She also writes a blog on her travels with her Chihuahua/Yorkie mix at www.travelswithchiclet.com.

Scope and Content

Four black and white photographs taken by Julia in Aroostook County, all of which have been framed in matching frames.

Arrangement

Captions are written in the collection inventory in parentheses. Further descriptions follow. Two of the frames were hung up on one wall in the Archives microfilm area prior to being processed and returned there after being processed. The other two photographs were placed on a shelf in the preservation room.
