Collection Description

Historical and Biographical Information

The building, built in 1841 by Lucien Webster (captain at Fort Kent) was located on Pleasant Street. In 1857, the State of Maine sold the building to the Page family. In 1867, Major Dickey bought the building. After his death in 1899, his son, Cyrus, turned the home into a hotel. The building burned down on May 25, 1928.
