Provenance
Many of the slides were created by members of hunting parties who regularly visited Allagash and sent to Guy Edward Kelly, Carolyn's father, over the years. Other slides, as well as the photographs, were created by Kelly and Gardner family members and friends. Helen (Kelly) McBreairty may have created the larger slides, and photographed people she may have known in Milford, Connecticut.

Carolyn (Kelly) Gardner was given these materials by her mother and father; in May of 2021, she legally relinquished the materials to Darrell McBreairty. Darrell McBreairty then scanned the images and donated both the physical and digital copies to the Acadian Archives/Archives acadiennes in October of 2026.

Collection Description

Historical and Biographical Information
Carolyn (Kelly) Gardner was born to Guy E. Kelly and Theresa Kelly, née Hughes, in Allagash, Maine, along with siblings Edward Guy Kelly, Barbara Kelly (later McBreairty), Leonard Kelly, Douglas Kelly, Helen Kelly (later McBreairty), Beulah Kelly (later Gardner), Kathy Kelly (later Jackson), and Sharon Kelly (later Cusack.) In 1965, Carolyn married Owen “Buddy” Gardner; the two lived for many years in a house on Inn Road near the Allagash River itself. During the 1992 Allagash River fire, sections of the property burned, though the house was saved by aerial firefighting efforts. Carolyn worked as a cashier at the Dickey Trading Post, owned by her father. Her husband passed in 1996, and she now lives in Bangor, Maine.

Guy E. Kelly, featured in many of these photographs, was born in 1914. He operated a lumber business and owned two camps at Fox Brook and The Bishop (or Ouellette) Place along the St. John River and often led hunting parties in the area.

Scope and Content
The collection consists of 242 slides, 367 photographs, and 50 unique digitized images created and collected by friends and family of Carolyn (Kelly) Gardner. The slides are largely of hunting parties in Allagash, family members, military encampments, and vacations. The photographs and digital images cover Carolyn (Kelly) Gardner's marriage to Owen Gardner in 1964, an ice jam and flood in 1974, an ice jam and flood in 1991, reconstruction of the St. John River Bridge which collapsed in 1991 and was rebuilt through 1994, and a 1992 wildfire near her home. Photographs have mostly been dated, and many have handwritten notes identifying locations, people, or particular moments in time. These notes have been written by Darrell McBreairty, Carolyn (Kelly) Gardner, and another Kelly family member.

Arrangement

Materials have been kept in their original order and organized according to type. Digitized files have been labeled with identifiers identical to the photographs and slides of which they are copies; digital files for which we do not possess the original physical copy have been inventoried in a separate series. The arrangement is as follows:

I. Slides
II. Photographs
III. Digital-only images
    a. Hunting images
    b. Family and friends images
