Biography: Béatrice Craig was born in France in 1949. She studied at l'Université de Lille, where she obtained her Maitrise ès lettres in 1975. She was awarded a Ph.D. in Canadian and American History in 1983 by the University of Maine at Orono. She is currently professeur agrégé (Associate Professor) in the Departement d'histoire, l'Université d'Ottawa, Ottawa, Canada.

As a professional historian, she specializes in the socio-economic and socio-cultural impacts of the emergence of industrial capitalism on Atlantic societies. She studied economic and social transformations of eastern Canadian rural society in the late 18th and in the 19th century.

Mrs Craig was awarded the Hilda Neatby Prize in 1999, conferred by the Historical Society of Canada for the best study on the history of women published the previous year. She was granted an honorary doctorate by the University of Maine at Fort Kent in May 13, 1995.
