Collection Description

Historical and Biographical Information

The Madawaska Training School was established through an act signed and approved by Maine governor Selden Connor on February 21, 1878. In the early years of the school's history, the location for the training of teachers alternated between Fort Kent and Van Buren, and in 1884 the school serving the lower section of the territory moved from Van Buren to Grand Isle. The money was appropriated for building permanent facilities for the school in Fort Kent, and the school finally had a permanent location and facility by the 1888-1889 school year. The name of the school was changed to Fort Kent State Normal School in 1955. Under its new name, the school saw its fourth and final principal, Joseph "Joe" Fox, who served the school from 1956 to 1971. Though originally the fourth principal of the school, he served long enough to see the school become a four-year college and change names three times; first to Fort Kent State Teacher's College in 1961, then to Fort Kent State College and finally to the University of Maine at Fort Kent in 1970. (This history was adapted from the UMFK website and the text A Century of Progress).

Scope and Content

This collection consists of photographs from the University of Maine at Fort Kent. Most of the photographs were taken on campus, with dates ranging from the beginning of the Madawaska Training School in the late 1880s to its final incarnation as the University of Maine at Fort Kent in 1970. The collection also includes a few snapshots and negatives from the early 1980s. Also included are a handful of miscellaneous items.

NOTE

On December 9, 2000, a photo of Miss Mary Nowland was sent to Mr. Parent (probably Jason Parent) by Anita-Belle Thibodeau Hammond of South Windsor, Connecticut, formerly of St. Francis, Maine. The note reads: "Dec 9, 00 Dear Mr. Parent: The enclosed photo of Miss Nowland has been in my family for a very long time. After me there is no one who would know who she was. I thought maybe you could find a place for it at the university. Sincerely, AnitaBelle (Thibodeau) Hammond."

Arrangement

The collection is arranged into 7 series: Faculty and Staff, 1878-1996 and undated; Campus Celebrations and Social Events, undated; "Outstanding Alumni" Portraits, undated; Student Life, undated; Campus Buildings, undated; Richard Grindle Slides for Nowland Hall Dedication, 1969; and miscellaneous. The student life series contains class portraits, commencement, organizations, athletics, social events, student center, dormitories, student teaching, classroom activities, enrollment activities, performing arts events, political and community volunteer activities, Nowland Hall and Blake Library, and candid and miscellaneous portraits.

Separated Materials (If Applicable)

Two items were separated from the collection and cataloged separately: Richard Grindle, Milestones from the Saint John Valley, 1977 (item 1192), call number F27.S29 G7 1977; University of Maine at Fort Kent, A Century of Progress, 1978 (item 1193), call number LD3172.F52 U5 1978.
