Finding Aid Prepared by: Lisa Ornstein, October 2000

Introduction. This finding aid provides information about the “A. J. Michaud Song Collection: Manuscripts,” a collection of song text transcriptions collected from Upper Saint John Valley River residents, Amaranthe J. Michaud, during 1969 and 1970.

A Long time researcher of St. John Valley history, Michaud was formerly president of the Madawaska Historical Society.

Access to the Collection. There are not restrictions on access to this collection.

Scope and Content. This collection consists of 477 pages of French-language song texts collected in the Upper Saint John Valley during 1969 and 1970 by A. J. Michaud. The texts appear to have been transcribed either from Mr. Michaud’s field recordings or from handwritten “scribblers” borrowed from local residents. Many pages are duplicates (carbons). The songs represent a wide range of repertory, including pre-eighteenth century French Traditional songs, French and French-Canadian nineteenth century and early twentieth century patriotic, comic, and sentimental songs, as well as local compositions.

Biographical Note. Amaranthe J. Michaud was born in Van Buren, Maine, 8 November 1908, the son of Timothy and Nalvina (St. Jean) Michaud. He attended Sacred Heart School in Van Buren, St. Mary’s College in Langhorne, Pennsylvania, the University of Detroit in Detroit, Michigan, and the University of Grenoble in France.

As a young man, A. J. Michaud taught and served as principal at the Lincoln School in Grand Isle. On 28 May 1937, he married Antoinette Vermette of Grand Isle and they raised five sons. From 1946 to 1972, he was proprietor of A. J. Michaud Co. Farm Machinery of Grand Isle, Maine. He was a member of the Fourth Degree Assembly of the Knights of Columbus and of the St. John Valley Council of Madawaska. He was a member of the Rotary Club and was an advisor of the Madawaska branch of the Aroostook Trust Company.

Keenly interested in the history and culture of the St. John Valley, A. J. Michaud co-founded and was president of the Madawaska Historical Society in its early years. Between 1969 and 1974, he wrote over 130 short essays on various local topics for the St. John Valley Times, a portion of which were published in 1972 as An Acadian Heritage from the Saint John River Valley.

A. J. Michaud died in Presque Isle following a short illness on 4 May 1974 at the age of 65.

Provenance and Chain of Custody. This collection was prepared by A. J. Michaud. After Michaud's death in 1974, the collection was transferred by his widow to Roger Paradis, Professor of History at the University of Maine at Fort Kent, "to be archived at U.M.F.K., if possible or at Moncton if necessary." This collection, was brought to the Acadian Archives by Professor Paradis in March 1991. A note from Professor Paradis suggests that this collection may represent part of a larger corpus.

Arrangement. The materials arrived in two 3-ring binders and four 3-prong binders. Archives staff removed and re-housed the materials in archival file folders. Original order within each file folder has been maintained. One of the binders contained too much material to be appropriately stored in a single file folder; these materials were separated into two file folders (folders 2 and 3).

Item-Level Inventory

This inventory provides the following basic information about each song in the collection:

- x. Title as it appears in Manuscript
 - a. Critical title, code concordance – Conrad La forte’s *Catalogue de la chanson folklorique française*¹
 - b. Typology (traditional or literary)
 - c. Structural description
 - d. Text synopsis
 - e. Opening line as it appears in manuscript
 - f. Page location in collection

Explanations

- x. Title: spelled as appears in manuscript
 - a. Critical title: concordance with Conrad Laforte’s Catalogue de la chanson française is a work in progress and should not be considered complete. Additional concordances will be added as they are identified. In the case of a literary song, when the lyricist or composer is known, a reference is provided. Also, in the case of a traditional song which has been recently disseminated through popular published series, a publication reference may be provided.
 - b. Typology: “Traditional” refers to the older stock of French-language song known to have been transmitted primarily through oral tradition; “pop” encompasses everything else. “Canadian” is added in cases where the text clearly suggests a Canadian (as opposed to European) origin.
 - c. Structural description: provides information about the poetic structure (e.g. strophic, lay, dialogue, enumerative)
 - d. Text synopsis: summarizes the narrative of the text
 - e. Opening line: spelled as appears in manuscript
