Biographical information: George L. Findlen III is the son of George Findlen Jr. and Irma Martin of Fort Fairfield and Van Buren, Maine. Mr. Findlen “is a retired academic administrator who has served as a faculty member or administrator at nine colleges and universities in seven states over thirty years. In retirement, he has re-invented himself as a genealogist, becoming certified in 2005. In addition to researching his family and those of clients, he writes articles for publication and gives talks to genealogy groups. On Tuesdays, he tries to stay out of trouble by volunteering at the Wisconsin Historical Society Library, where he is part of the “Tuesdays with

Lori” trio of volunteers in the Microforms Room. His genealogical research area focuses on the blended Acadian and French-Canadian families of Eastern Canada and New England, and he has published several articles involving them.”¹
