Biographical note: Marc Chassé was born in St. Agatha, Maine in April 1938. He is the eldest of four children to Marie Estelle Franck and Emile Chassé. He left St. Agathe to attend high school at St. Francis High School in Biddeford, Maine, where he met the woman he would later marry, Priscilla Hanna. After studying pre-med at Merrimack College in Andover, Mass, he went to Palmer College of chiropractic in Davenport, Iowa, where he graduated in 1962. Dr. Chassé practiced chiropractic in Fort Kent for 35 year, retiring in 1998. He and Priscilla raised 4 children, Daniel, Carl, Kevin, and Christine. Marc has been involve in a number of community and civic organizations and is the recipient of several awards.

In 2004, Marc published a book Les belles histoires du Couvent de Ste-Agathe, a 200 page compilation of 112 anecdotes from former students to celebrate the Daughters of Wisdom's Centennial in Ste-Agathe. He is an avid golf and tennis player.

Scope and content:

This collection consists of video recordings of oral histories collected by Marc Chassé. These histories document the Franco-American culture of the Saint John Valley. Most of his interviewees are from the St. John Valley, Maine.
