Scope and content:

This collection consists of Gisèle Rhéaume's thesis for the University of Ottawa in Canada. The thesis, entitled Conscience territoriale et/ou communautaire et sentiment d'appartenance des populations d'une zone frontalière: étude de perceptions et de comportements, concerns the subject of "topophilia," which is (according to the thesis abstract) a "type of territoriality." The thesis uses people from Québec, Madawaska, St. John Valley, Aroostook Center, and New Brunswick to test its theory. The thesis includes maps, graphs, and photographs. Except for the abstract, the entire thesis is written in French.
