Scope and content:

This collection consists of a letter written by Prudent Mercure from the Archives canadiennes in Ottawa, November 15, 1910. In the letter, Mercure outlines the history of the Acadian family Martin of the Upper Saint John Valley region. Also included are a cover letter from Denis P. Martin to Fernand and Annette Martin and notes on the Mercure letter prepared by George Findlen. The notes describe the letter, its provenance, and discrepancies in its information. The notes are written in both English and French; both letters are in French.
