Biographical information:

Jacqueline Solange Nadeau-Querzé was born in Edmundston, New Brunswick, Canada on September 9, 1945. She worked at the Provincial Bank in Edmundston after her High School graduation. She married and moved to Massachusetts and New Hampshire for a few years. She came back to Madawaska and worked at Fraser Mill for 25 years.

Her hobbies are genealogy, knitting, and crocheting. In 1987 she walked across the State of Maine averaging 25 miles per day. It took her 3 weeks and she did it in support of programs against child abuse.

Scope and content:

This collection consists of genealogical research materials compiled by Nadeau-Querzé. These materials, including family trees and copies of various genealogical documents, were sent to her by members of the Cyr family for publication in Nadeau-Querzé's Cyr Family Reunion, published in conjunction with a Cyr family reunion in 2011.
