Historical information: The Saint John Valley Times was founded by Emile Genest and Joe Falter, both of Thomaston, Connecticut, and published its first issue on 2 October 1957. It has been owned and published since 1973 by Cleveland Newspapers (formerly Walls Newspaper, Inc.) of Cleveland, Tennessee.

Since November 2015, Bangor Publishing has been the new owner of the St. John Valley Times of Madawaska. The Bangor-based company acquired the 58-year-old St. John Valley Times from Walls Newspapers of Birmingham, Alabama. Walls Newspapers has owned the St. John Valley Times for more than 40 years.

In addition to Bangor Daily News, Maine's most-read news outlet, Bangor Publishing Co. also owns other weekly newspapers: The Star-Herald in Presque Isle, Aroostook Republican and News in Caribou, The Piscataquis Observer in Dover-Foxcroft, the Houlton Pioneer Times, and The Weekly, which covers Greater Bangor. The company also publishes Bangor Metro, a monthly magazine.

Biographical Information: Emery 'Legs' Labbe played and excelled in many local sports including bowling, softball, and baseball. Labbe is the former principal and vice principal for MSAD#27, a member of the Fort Kent Lions Club, and a former town councilor. "Legs" is perhaps best known for his support of UMFK Athletics in his role as the former editor, publisher, and sports writer for the St. John Valley Times. He has established many connections with student-athletes, coaches, administrators, and the extended Bengal family.¹

Legs started in newspapers as a part-time sports reporter for the St. John Valley Times in 1965, while he was teaching elementary school in northern Aroostook County. That part-time job led to a career in journalism spanning more than 30 years, in which Labbe became publisher of the weekly paper in Madawaska. Labbe worked as sports reporter and editor until 1986, when he retired from education and became publisher of the St. John Valley Times. He served for a decade before retiring from that position.²

Scope and content: This collection consists of 507 black and white and colored photographs of different sizes from 1954 - 1991, all submitted for issues of the Saint John Valley Times. Included are images of individuals, businesses, animals, and events, all reflecting life and culture within the Saint John Valley of Aroostook County, Maine. Some of the images have descriptions and labels on their reverse sides, although some images are unlabeled.
