Historical notes: On May 9, 1973, a corporation was formed and named, “Notre Heritage Vivant”. The name representing the eastern part of the Saint. John Valley in Aroostook County of Maine. It encompasses the communities of Grand Isle, Van Buren, Hamlin, and Cyr Plantation. The purpose of the corporation is to foster, promote, and encourage interest in the history and in preserving the heritage and culture of the people of the region. Many fundraising projects were held and with the help of generous supporters who donated land and buildings the Acadian Village was underway. Gilles Nadeau was chosen as the village designer. The society received a CETA grant and a matching grant from the Maine State Bicentennial Commission. When the weather permitted, volunteers started getting the land ready and moving buildings one at a time or constructing new buildings on the site of the present village. “The Acadian Village contains a group of buildings depicting an Acadian Heritage. A culture that is very distinguished in exposing the skills of art, courage, faith, and the hardship our ancestors had in establishing the Saint John River Valley.”

Scope and content: This collection consists of 243 photographs displaying works from different artists, diverse events at different places with members of the Society and community, and care taking of buildings on the premises of the Héritage Vivant Historical Society between 2002 and 2016.
