Collection Description

Historical and Biographical Information

Gladys Gardner was born in Kingsclear, New Brunswick on June 18, 1893 to Abraham and Christy (Morrison) Mills. She attended the Madawaska Training School and taught in the Allagash schools for 24 years. After retiring as a teacher, Gladys was a member of the Orja of the Eastern Star, Tilikum Chapter No. 99 of Ashland, and the National Retired Teachers Association. She was the widow of Thomas V. Gardner. She died at the age of 84 at the Fort Kent Hospital. [Information taken from obituary]

Scope and Content

Anything in the collection inventory written in [] signifies that the processing archivist was not 100% sure of the word or dates. The use of quotation marks signifies a direct quote from the text.

The scrapbook consists of holiday cards; correspondence from male family members during their time in the armed service during World War II; a couple of wedding invitations/announcements; newspaper clippings and anniversary cards. Two of the posters pertain to the history of the Madawaska Training School and Gladys (Mills) Gardner's family ties to the school. The third poster is a letter (or copy of a letter) concerning St. Bruno Parish in Van Buren, ME being aggregated into the Society of Saint-Vincent de Paul in 1926.

Arrangement

The scrapbook was left in the condition/order it was accepted by the archives staff minus a shoelace-like string that appears to have served as a binding for the pages which was removed and discarded. The scrapbook was put in an archival box to preserve the brittle loose-leaf pages and loose items that were once attached to the scrapbook pages.

The posters were brought in with the scrapbook rolled up; the two pertaining to the Madawaska Training School were rolled up within each other and separated by the processing archivist. The posters were flattened to the best of their ability and put in an oversized folder in a map case drawer.
