

Christmas Cheer

A tiny babe, our Saviour, was born on Christmas night.

A haloed light from Heaven shone round
his crib so bright,

The wise men gathered round Him, a star had led them there.

To gaze in wonder at the Child and breathe
a fervent prayer.

"Hail Mary full of grace they said, the Lord
has brought you here.

To give birth to our Saviour and bring us Xmas cheer.

We'll bless your name forever and ask that you will pray

Throughout the year and bring us cheer
on every Xmas day."

Inez Day Richards
Houlton, Maine
December, 1962.

Christmas Cheer

A tiny babe, our Savior, was born on Christmas night.
A haloed light from Heaven shone round His crib so bright.
The wise men gathered round Him, a star had led them there,
To gaze in wonder at the child and breathe a fervent prayer.

“Hail Mary full of grace,” they said, “the Lord has brought you here.

To give birth to our Savior and bring us Christmas cheer.

We’ll bless your name forever and ask that you will pray

Throughout the year and bring us cheer on every Christmas Day.”

Inez Day Richards
Koulton, Maine
December, 1962