

My cup of tea & I.

In solitude we linger my cup of tea and I
It must be hot if it were cold I know I'd surely die

The neighbors, when I'm calling ask me if I will stay and sup a cup of tea with them to cheer me on my way.

But I say, no, my pal is home and waiting there for me

My charm it is that gives me warmth my cozy cup of tea.

The warmth of tea it penetrates beyond the veils of men It comforts me and braces me for all the work I plan

So friends of mine who live alone take pattern now from me and get yourself a good supply, don't stint yourself of tea,

your friends may come, your friends may go and you may lonely be
But there is comfort waiting you

In drinking ~~get~~ hot tea.
Inez Day Richards.

My Cup of Tea and I

In solitude we linger my cup of tea and I
It must be hot if it were cold I know I'd surely die
The neighbors, when I'm calling ask me if I will stay And sup a cup of tea with them to cheer me on my way.
But I say, no, my pal is home and waiting there for me
My chum it is that gives me warmth my cozy cup of tea.
The warmth of tea it penetrates beyond the revels of men
It comforts me and braces me for all the work I plan
So friends of mine who live alone, take pattern now from me
And get yourself a good supply, Don't stint yourself of tea,
Your friends may come, your friends may go and you may lonely be
But there is comfort waiting you
In drinking good hot tea.

Inez Day Richards